"The Color Purple" to Benefit DCADV

Where & When

Date: Tuesday, September 14
Time: 7:30pm
Location: DuPont Theatre,
Wilmington

The National Broadway Tour of "The Color Purple"

The unforgettable and inspiring story of a woman named Celie, who rises up against the pain and violence of her life and finds her unique voice in the world. Nominated for eleven Tony Awards, The Color Purple is a landmark theatrical event, a celebration of love, and a Broadway phenomenon. With a joyous GRAMMY-nominated score featuring jazz, gospel and blues, The Color Purple is capturing the hearts of young and old, and uniting audiences in a community of joy.

Normally available for $60, a special DCADV price of $45 for mezzanine seating is available if purchased through the link below. A portion of each ticket sale benefits DCADV.

Tickets will be available for pick up at the theater on the night of the event, following receipt of a confirmation email from DCADV.

"A Call to Men" Roundtable

Where & When

Date: Friday, October 29
Time: 9:00am - 3:00pm

"A Call to Men" Roundtable led by Tony Porter

Part of DCADV's ongoing efforts to organize local male community leaders to take a stand against domestic violence. Featuring keynote speaker Tony Porter from "A Call to Men" and DCADV training staff.

Participants will learn more about the national movement and meet and network with Delaware men who have taken the initiative to address this core human rights issue. Registration will be limited, as Mr. Porter's presentation will be very interactive and will include devising "next steps" with the participants.
